

Grading Group Discussions

Grading Group Discussions

When you assign groups in your course, you are able to set up discussion boards for each group. Only members of the group can see the discussion board assigned to them. Each member of the group will be graded individually on their contributions to the group discussion board.

To Grade Group Discussions:

1. From the Needs Grading Page:
 1. On the Course Menu, expand the Grade Center section, and click on Needs Grading.
 2. On the Needs Grading page, locate the student's discussion submission and click on the Action Link.

Category	Item Name	User Attempt	Date Submitted	Due Date
Discussion	Introductions!	Demo2_Student2	June 18, 2015 12:05:28 PM
Assignment	Literary Paper Assignment #1	Demo2_Student2	June 29, 2015 1:59:43 PM	July 31, 2015
Assignment	Biography Assignment	Demo2_Student2	July 30, 2015 4:13:32 PM
Blog	Shakespeare	Shakespeare	August 18, 2015 1:59:35 PM
Journal	Shakespeare	Shakespeare	August 18, 2015 1:59:36 PM
Wiki	Shakespeare	Shakespeare	August 18, 2015 1:59:36 PM
Discussion	Shakespeare	Demo2_Student2	August 18, 2015 2:06:01 PM

(Click on the image to enlarge)

3. Click "Grade All Users"
4. On the Grade Discussion page, you can view the student's discussion post.
 1. If you would like to reply to the student's post, click "Reply". Then, enter your response and click submit.
5. Enter a grade for the student's discussion post.
6. Click Submit.

Grade Discussion Forum: Demo2 Student2
The Grade Forum page for a user displays a collection of the user's posts to the Forum to assist with evaluating participation. More Help

Print Preview Filter Jump to...

Viewing 1 of 1 gradable items

< Demo2 Student2 (Activity) > Exit

Sort by Date of Last Post Order Descending

Select: All None

Mark

Thread: Week 1 Response Posted Date: August 18, 2015 2:06 PM
Post: Week 1 Response Status: Published
Author: Demo2 Student2

This week we read "Hamlet" by William Shakespeare. I really didn't like the play at all because I don't feel like I can relate to it. I am a very non-confrontational person, so the idea of revenge is not really appealing to me. I couldn't get this out of my mind the entire time I was reading it.

The biggest question I had while reading the play was, "why was Hamlet so keen on getting revenge?" Deep down, I'm not sure if getting revenge was worth all the trouble.

Reply Quote Mark as Read

Forum Statistics > > >

< Student2 Demo2 (1) >

GRADE
8/18/15 2:06 PM /10

FEEDBACK TO LEARNER

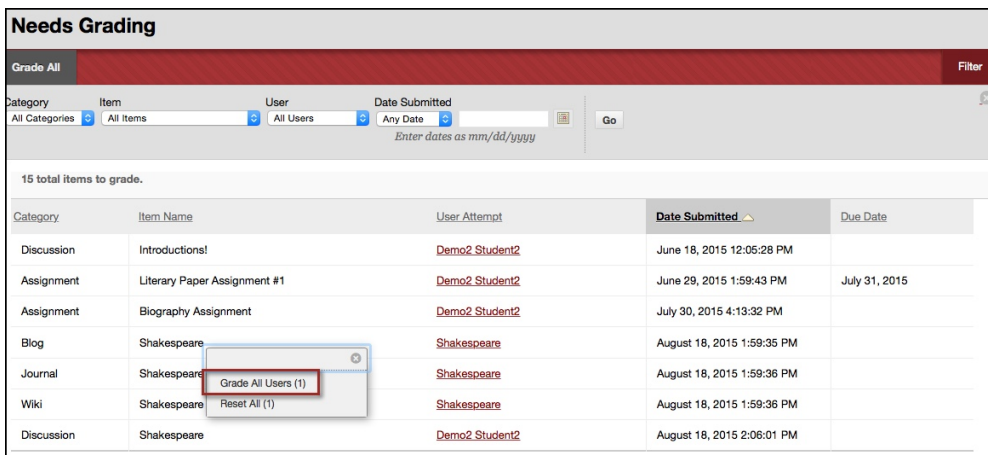

Add Notes

Cancel Save Draft Submit

(Click on the image to enlarge)

2. From the Full Grade Center:

1. On the Course Menu, expand the Grade Center section, and click on Full Grade Center.
2. On the Full Grade Center page, scroll to the right to locate the column for the group discussion. Then locate the cell for the student's submission.
3. Click on the action link inside the cell for the student's post, and click "Grade All Users".

(Click on the image to enlarge)

4. On the Grade Discussion page, you can view the student's discussion post.
 1. If you would like to reply to the student's post, click "Reply". Then, enter your response and click submit.
5. Enter a grade for the student's discussion post.
6. Click Submit.

(Click on the image to enlarge)

Please note: Each student is graded individually for group discussion submissions.