

Blackboard Learn Custom Login Pages

Definition

UMassOnline will be hosting the login pages for Blackboard Learn using the Blackboard Learn System. Students, Faculty and Staff will no longer login via <http://umassonline.net>, but rather with a custom branded Login page.

UMassOnline Technology Team will be responsible for the backend features such as:

- Username pre/post fixing
- OWL Code
- Design/development assistance
- System Level Announcements

Campus Affiliates will be responsible for features such as:

- Branding
- Design management
- Page Maintenance

Default vs Customized Login Pages

Blackboard Learn provides a default login page which can be customized to suit the needs of an individual institution.

Background

UMassOnline hosted login pages for Blackboard Vista via <http://umassonline.net> (a Marketing tool) for several years due to the inability for campuses to customize and brand their own pages in a centralized area. With the advent of Blackboard Learn, each campus can now have a customized, branded login page hosted via Blackboard Learn.

Learning Management System

Through UMassOnline, UMass Amherst Continuing & Professional Education presents online courses on the Blackboard Learn learning management system. Students will receive their login information and instructions via their UMass email account (UMail). It is important to activate your UMail account to receive official UMass Amherst communications. Online courses become available for access one week before the start date of the class.
